be photocopied or reproduced by any means without the prior consent of counsel for the other party or until further order of this Court.

3. Any and all of the aforesaid materials disclosed by the parties and the contents thereof shall be used only in connection with the above-captioned matter and shall not be used for any other purpose whatsoever.
4. No person who examines any document produced pursuant to this order shall disseminate orally, in writing, or by any other means, the document(s) or the information contained therein, to any person not also authorized to examine documents under the terms of this order.
5. Counsel for all parties to the above-captioned litigation may permit an expert or experts hired by the parties in the above-captioned litigation to review the documents subject to this Protective Order, but counsel must first obtain from said experts a written statement confirming the expert's agreement to comply with every element of this Protective Order. Said experts shall agree that the documents and the contents thereof shall not be disclosed to any other person or entity and said documents shall not be photocopied or reproduced by any means. Any documents provided to experts must be returned to counsel for the other party within thirty days of the conclusion of the above-captioned litigation pursuant to the terms of paragraph 8 below.
6. Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions, this Order shall be without prejudice to the right of any party to challenge the propriety of discovery on any grounds including, but not limited to, relevance, privilege and materiality.
7. Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions, this Order shall not restrict in any manner the right of any party to offer or use as evidence at the trial of this action any of the documents subject to this Protective Order and nothing contained herein shall be construed as a waiver of any objection which might be raised as to the admissibility of any evidentiary material.
8. At the conclusion of this lawsuit by settlement, a jury verdict, non-suit, dismissal, by judgment order or otherwise, all materials in exchanged in discovery, including any and all copies, or renditions made from the materials, shall be returned to the other party within thirty (30) days.

9. A breach of the terms of this Order shall entitle either party to appropriate sanctions, including but not limited to attorneys fees and costs incurred in the enforcement of this Order.

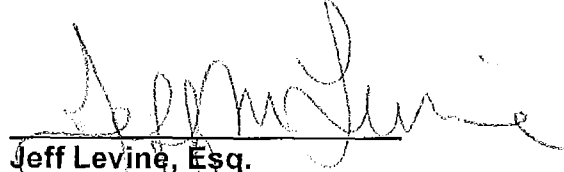

Entered this 23rd day of March, 2012.
